Okay, so as I said before, Black Blood Brothers was licenced so it's now gone from the DDL. If you still need any of the episodes I suggest a Google search of some sort (some of you know what I mean). So don't go sending me emails about putting it back up since I did technically give you all 5 more days that I originally said I would.

For the moment I will be leaving YNSH on the DDL, but depending on the way certain things go in the near future it will be going soon too.

Edit:

Okay, so as I said YNSH will now be going as well due to it's licenced status. I may be putting up 24 and 25 as they come out but you'll all have to wait and see on that one.
